

11/11

to MEI

and

2024, the

MEI

the

the 2024

the 2024

MEI's findings reflect a well-procedural violations, these incidents did not reflect any systemic problems, A

the

the

the

A 6, 21

the

the

in two locations. MEI also recommen election judges (poll workers) on how election process.

"MEI thanks election of icials in Miss

the

the

the

voter confidence and will be especiall

the

the

the

of results on June 18. MEOI will issue a second statement, summarizing key findings from all election processes observed, after the certification of results.

~~64~~

or to request an interview with Jef Mangan or Geraldine Custer, ~~6~~

~~6~~

~~64~~

The election process was orderly and efficient. The process was orderly and efficient. The process was orderly and efficient.

The election process did not reflect significant systematic shortcomings with the implementation of Missoula. The election process did not reflect significant systematic shortcomings with the implementation of Missoula. The election process did not reflect significant systematic shortcomings with the implementation of Missoula.

Missoula County voters can take steps to improve the election process. Missoula County voters can take steps to improve the election process. Missoula County voters can take steps to improve the election process.

Missoula County election officials place emphasis on their poll worker / election judge training. Missoula County election officials place emphasis on their poll worker / election judge training. Missoula County election officials place emphasis on their poll worker / election judge training.

More detailed findings are available in the report. More detailed findings are available in the report. More detailed findings are available in the report.

Opening of Polls

where observers specifically reported potential issues with preserving secrecy of the ballot, layout

The most significant issue that MEOI observers reported was that election judges provided one instruction

County Elections Office

& de$ nnh ví & t

marked spoiled ballots and retained them separately

g 5

g

.
8

x

A

1000